

Entu Laurelai and the “LAnon Anti-Laurelai Mob”

What is fact, and what is fiction?

This document has been written to help explain the situation and answer your questions. Some of you may have heard that our Temple or some of its members have been under attack lately, and you may have questions about the nature of these attacks and what it is all about. It is true that our Temple is under attack, and that some of our members have been targeted with harassment and coercion. We want to address this issue directly and transparently, so that there is no room for misinterpretation.

After hearing about some of what is going on, it's natural to have some questions, such as:

How did all of this start?

Why would anyone speak ill about our Temple?

Why would anyone attack our members?

Why would anyone accuse Laurelai of being evil, harmful, or dangerous?

Why are people telling me that I should not associate with Laurelai?

What should I do if they start attacking me on social media?

About the Anti-Laurelai Mob, aka “LAnon”:

The Anti-Laurelai Mob, also known as “LAnon” is composed of a few tens of obsessively dedicated people who are hell-bent on hurting Laurelai, everyone she cares about, and anyone who cares about her. They are a loose-knit group of hateful and deeply toxic trans women who wholesale believe and regurgitate lies, misinformation, rumors, and gossip about Laurelai as an obsessive pass-time. They consider it their holy mission to harm and obstruct Laurelai. They have been stalking and harassing her online across multiple platforms, and in real life, for more than a decade now. Their goal is simple: to prevent Laurelai from living a life at all, to prevent her from earning an income, to prevent her from knowing any peace, to prevent her from having any allies or companions, and to prevent her from building any kind of a community, company, or organization. Most of these individuals outright admit that they would kill her or drive her to suicide if they had the chance. There are several individuals who spend time every day searching for new security vulnerabilities that Laurelai might have, and disseminating information about those vulnerabilities to all of their connections. They have gone to such great lengths to track down and hurt Laurelai that they have harmed several innocent people who they at one point thought were Laurelai, even though there was no evidence to suggest that. Laurelai has tried to make peace with these people repeatedly, to no avail, because they do not want peace, they want blood. They do not care about evidence or proof or logic or reason. They do not care about innocent people. They only care about increasing their own social clout and power, and doing whatever they can do to hurt Laurelai and those close to her.

Tactics used by “LAnon”:

The LAnon mob has made use of a dizzying list of destructive tools and behaviors designed to affect coercion and despair from their targets. The most heinous of which spills over into real-life offline effects, attempting to disrupt and derail the lives of their targets. Some of these tools even carry the risk of physical harm, such as doxxing, swatting, blackmailing, and the creation of KiwiFarms threads designed to incite extreme harassment, stalking, and assault by empowering unstable malicious agents to target their victims. Most of the mob’s attacks boil down to online efforts, usually involving fear-mongering, online stalking, poison-pilling of new associates, character assassination of new associates, and the creation of endless sockpuppet fake accounts from which to harass and slander people from. Their main M.O. is to slander and libel Laurelai and anyone connected with her or assumed to be her, while also harassing her and those in contact with her, and verbally coercing those in contact with her to sever their connection with her and avoid any project she is a part of. This is all done through citing the many allegations that they have fabricated, which they refuse to submit any form of proof for. If someone demands proof of them, they simply declare that person is part of the problem and they treat them as an enemy, worthy of all the harassment and abuse they can muster. Indeed, they are ready and willing to levy fabricated allegations against anyone whom they see fit, and they use this as their main means to deplatform and isolate anyone they target. What makes their efforts so effective is that they have built a large network of terminally online peers who all contribute to harassment and abuse, and they build and disseminate blocklists and blacklists which they and their associates mindlessly adhere to. They often seek out former acquaintances of Laurelai and her associates and coerce them into releasing false statements condemning Laurelai and her associates. One of their more recent tactics is adding the names of people they don’t like to lists of nazis and right wing influences, so as to poison those people’s names and reputations by associating them with fascists even though they are not fascists. Most people do not evaluate whether or not everyone on the list is actually fascist, they take it at face value, and that is the main reason the LAnon mob is so powerful. They do not permit people to question them and they do not require evidence before deciding someone is to be “mulched” (blacklisted and targeted, removed from society’s grace). Their only goal is to harm Laurelai and those close to her, and they do not care if innocent people are targeted, harmed, or mulched in the process. They thrive on destroying communities and isolating innocent people.

We strongly recommend that if you become in contact with or targeted by a member of LAnon that you do not engage them directly. Anything you say to them can and likely will be taken out of context and used as ammunition against you, Laurelai, or anyone you associate with, including our Temple. As infuriating as the injustice is, the best way to deal with these people is to not deal with them at all. Block them and move on with your life.

We are happy to discuss and provide access to the proofs of Laurelai’s innocence upon request, and we only withhold them from this document for the sake of brevity and for considerations of privacy for the other people who are in those proofs. We are also happy to discuss the entire matter of LAnon and the harms they commit whenever you would like. Our goal is to be as transparent as possible and to allow each person to make up their mind for themselves - the exact opposite of what the LAnon mob does.

In the next section you will read about the Rumors and Social Media History which made Laurelai the victim of this hateful smear-campaign, and the situations which led to her getting harassed and stalked.

Rumor: Laurelai Bailey is a Fed, a FBI Informant, and was part of LulzSec/Anonymous.

The Truth: Laurelai Bailey is internet-famous because she got swept up as an innocent bystander during the FBI investigation against LulzSec, a hacker group which was originally part of Anonymous, which took on government and other high-profile targets. Laurelai was in a chat room with members of LulzSec when they were attacking a security firm named HBGary Federal. She was not a member of LulzSec, and she did not participate in any of their activities. While in the chatroom, she acted solely as a reporter for CrowdLeaks, by engaging the hackers in conversation and befriending them in order to document what was going on. Soon after, she was raided by the FBI who confiscated her hard drives and equipment, but they did **not** file any charges against her, and they did **not** arrest her. She told a friend about being raided soon afterwards, and that friend leaked the chat log in a pastebin document which incorrectly listed Laurelai as a member of LulzSec. She was officially recognized as not a member of LulzSec by the police and the FBI. During a 5 hour interview, the FBI asked her to infiltrate LulzSec, but the members of LulzSec hated her for recording their conversation, so it would never have been possible. The leaked Pastebin document effectively Doxxed her, and as a result she got fired from her place of employment for embarrassing the company. Laurelai never acted as an informant, and she was never a member of LulzSec.

Published news articles and official government documentation supports all of this information.

Rumor: Laurelai is a rapist, an abuser, and a manipulator who harms vulnerable trans women.

The Truth: Laurelai has had a lot of intimate and close contact with various trans women over the years whom she had trusted, women who turned on her for gains of social clout, and for opportunities of social engineering and manipulation of others. In doing so, they created a virtual “mob” of real and fictitious people who collectively have the power to declare anyone they want to be an enemy via raising fictitious rape and sexual assault claims against them, effectively “socially murdering” anyone they deem as their enemy. This mob of people rampantly lies, ignores evidence of their claims being lies, and obsessively harasses Laurelai and many others who are close to her. They frequently accuse other people of literally being Laurelai in disguise, and then commit social murder against them as well.

Detailed Explanation: Laurelai also crossed paths with a woman named Natalie Durkin, who has a history of fabricating rape accusations against people she doesn't like, and in order to manipulate people into doing what she wants via extortion. Natalie fabricated rape accusations against Laurelai, and then later admitted they were fake to several people. Those several people began speaking out about Natalie to yet other people, as well, and in that, other people came out and revealed that Natalie herself is a rapist and sexual abuser, with a long track record of sexually assaulting and manipulatively abusing many people. Natalie not only levies false rape claims, but she also stalks, harasses, impersonates online, and doxxes people in order to get what she wants and to make herself look like a victim whenever the consequences of her own actions begin being focused on. She has an established history of attacking trans women and then obsessively manipulating everyone in that trans woman's life to try to cut them off from their support network and associations. She has admitted to doing this to Laurelai to multiple parties. Natalie is also a user of Kiwi Farms, username Typhoid Mary, a group which is responsible for the deaths of many through the use of concerted harassment, and swatting. Laurelai spoke up about Natalie's racism and emotional abuse, and because of this Natalie levied false rape accusations against her publicly, starting a huge smear campaign.

Laurelai also lived with someone named Eliza, who also went on to spread fabricated allegations against her. By this point there was a literal mob of people online who were fabricating malicious lies about Laurelai and spreading them to as many rumor mills as they could. Eliza and her roommate used emotional abuse to manipulate Laurelai and make her life a living hell until they all parted ways. Later on Eliza came out publicly and refuted all the allegations that she had made, and confirmed that Laurelai never acted without consent and never did anything abusive.

Laurelai was sought out by a woman named Zoey Wolfe, who had heard about the allegations levied against her and was curious if they were true. Laurelai and Zoey had a consensual sexual relationship, with witnesses able to corroborate the consent was given. Zoey went on to rape two women. Zoey's second victim convinced Zoey that she became a rapist because of her interactions with Laurelai. Laurelai found out about Zoey being a predator and broke up with her, and in response to that Zoey levied more false allegations against Laurelai. Once again, later on, Zoey publicly admitted the allegations she made were false, and Zoey herself was outed as a sexual predator by another woman who was her victim.

Lastly, another woman named Iris, who was at one point friends with Laurelai, quickly fell victim to the mob who were spreading lies about Laurelai. Iris was manipulatively coerced and socially engineered into fabricating yet more allegations against Laurelai. But once again, later on, Iris came out and refuted those allegations once she had broken free from the mob who went on to abuse her after they had extracted all of the social clout and usefulness they could out of her. After everyone had abused her and abandoned her she was socially isolated and became suicidal. Laurelai went on to help save Iris from that dark time of her life even despite the fact that she had previously levied false allegations against Laurelai. Soon after Iris and Laurelai had reconciled with each other.
